The LifeSavers' Debut

Attendants at our April 1st celebration witnessed the debut of The LifeSavers, the "unofficial" men's quartet representing The LifeFM.

After months of practice and preparation, The LifeSavers took the stage at Rock Springs Baptist Church, stirring the packed-out auditorium with an acapella rendition of "Jesus on the Mainline" and the up tempo "Feelin' Mighty Fine."

It was a great jumpstart for an event that was focused on celebrating a year of many blessings and accomplishments!

Spring has sprung—and that means it is Sharathon time at The LifeFM!

The theme for this year’s on-air appeal, “Get a Little Dirt on My Hands,” was a reference to the New Testament parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

A man was on a journey and had been beaten and robbed, in need of assistance and attention. A priest and a Levite passed by, choosing to ignore the plea. When the Good Samaritan saw the man, he stopped and showed compassion, going above and beyond the call of duty.

This application can be likened to the helping hands that are needed to sustain The LifeFM network. Licensing fees, tower rentals and general operating expenses are just a few of the ongoing costs that need to be fulfilled every month. Getting a little dirt on our hands can be a rewarding and eternal investment!

Thank you to those who participated and showed support this year. We praise God that 64% of our goal has already been met!

Five Reasons Why You Should Listen to Southern Gospel Music:

1. It is music that has a message. Read what one of our listeners shared with us: “Thank you for providing a wonderful and encouraging radio station that is devoted to providing Scripture-inspired music that honors the Lord.” What a blessing that is!
2. It will put you in a good mood. The songs that you hear on The LifeFM will get your toes tapping and cause you to turn that radio dial up. Singing along is a healthy habit too!
3. It will lead your thoughts to think about Jesus and what He did for you. This ties in with Reason #1. Because the focus of every song relates to the Christian life, many lyrics will speak of the Blood, the Cross, and Jesus’ finished Work at Calvary. We serve a Risen Savior who loves us and died for us! Amen.
4. It will bring you peace and comfort. We are all on the same journey called “Life.” In times of despair, weariness and loss, we crave answers, strength and encouragement to press on. Music that honors God will soothe your soul and provide you with reassurance that He knows your heartache and concerns.
5. It will motivate you to tell others about your God. Why keep this “good stuff” all to yourself? Share with others the Good News—that Jesus Christ paid the penalty for their sins and offers forgiveness. Salvation is a free gift and eternity in heaven is ours, if we but trust and obey. And then, let them know about Southern Gospel music!
